

Want to GO PRO?

Panelists: Marc Haine, DTM, Jonathan Ettie, ACG, ALB, Bob 'Idea Man' Hooey, DTM, AS and special guest David Papp, P.Eng. President CAPS Edmonton

Do you have what it takes to GO Pro, to become a successful professional speaker or trainer? What does it take? What are the hurdles? And how can you avoid the pitfalls? What resources exist to take you from speaker to Professional Speaker? Join our panelists to explore the process and the path to become a professional speaker or trainer. We'll uncover how Toastmasters' Accredited Speakers program can help propel your credibility and we'll reveal some insights and strategies on how to get started. Our panelists come from various stages within the professional speaking and training industry and will share their experience and journey. Accredited Speaker, Bob Hooey will host this panel. Bring your notepads and your questions.

Marc Haine, DTM, in his first year as a paid, professional speaker and trainer, is a long-time hospitality consultant working with organizations that want to become more hospitable to their internal and external customers. David Papp, P.Eng., Tech pioneer (25+ years) specializing in CyberSecurity & Privacy, Social Media, Technology Management, and Blockchain. Popular media resource spending his time speaking, consulting, and creating to help businesses embrace technology to thrive in the online world. Jonathan Ettie, ACG, ALB, is a passionate developer for key logistical software helping drive the cement industry, a critical building block for construction projects. Active in Toastmasters, Jonathan aspires to be a leader and professional speaker.

Canada's Ideaman, Bob Hooey, DTM, AS, partners with committed leaders and organizations to equip and motivate for profitable growth and enhanced success. He teaches idea-rich business and leadership development built on solid foundations and taking strategic action.