FIRST IMPRESSIONS

First impressions are important to club success because guests' positive experiences and observations determine whether they will return and become members.

Standards
Guests greeted warmly and introduced to officers and members		Convenient meeting location
Guest book and name tags provided		Guests invited to address the club
Professionally arranged meeting room		Guests invited to join

MEMBERSHIP ORIENTATION

In order to offer members the greatest benefit from the Toastmasters experience, the club must acquaint new members with the education and recognition programs and make members aware of the club's responsibility to them and their responsibility to the club.

Standards
Formal induction, including presentation of membership pin and manuals		Discussed accommodations for members with disabilities
Assignment of mentor		Speaking role(s) assigned
Education programs and recognition system discussed		Member involved in all aspects of club activities
Learning needs assessed

FELLOWSHIP, VARIETY, AND COMMUNICATION

The club retains members by providing a fun, friendly and supportive environment that encourages enjoyable learning.

Standards
Guests greeted warmly and made welcome		Members participate in area, district, and International events
Enjoyable, and educational meetings planned		Interclub events encouraged
Regularly scheduled social events		Club newsletter / website published and updated regularly

PROGRAM PLANNING AND MEETING ORGANIZATION

When club meetings are carefully planned, with well-prepared speakers and useful evaluations, members are able to meet their education goals.

Standards
Program and agenda publicized in advance		Meetings begin and end on time
Members know program responsibilities and are prepared to carry out all assignments		Creative Table Topics® and activities
All projects are manual projects		Positive and helpful evaluations

MEMBERSHIP STRENGTH

When the club has enough members to provide leadership and fill meeting and committee assignments, this creates a lively, active club that benefits existing members and draws new members in.

Standards
Club has 20 or more members		Club programs varied and exciting
Members are retained		Toastmasters sponsoring new members recognized
Promotion of club in the community or within its organization		Regular membership-building programs

ACHIEVEMENT RECOGNITION

The club motivates members to stay active by monitoring members' progress towards goals, submitting completed award applications immediately, and consistently recognizing member achievements.

Standards
Award applications immediately submitted to World Headquarters		Club, district, and International leaders recognized
Progress charts displayed and maintained		Club and member achievements publicized
Member achievements formally recognized with ceremony		DCP is used for planning and recognition

For each standard that is rated 3 or lower, look at the Best Practices Chart and discuss the following questions with your team:

1. What is the cause of this challenge?

2. What can be done to address it? Who could be responsible for that action?

EVALUATIONS

MEMBER ACHIEVEMENT

Challenges	Possible Causes	Recommendations
Members are not earning awards. Speakers are not improving.	Members are not delivering speeches from Toastmasters manuals. Achievement is not recognized within the club. Mentors are not supporting protégés. Mentors may not understand their responsibilities.	Recognize delivery of the Ice Breaker with a ceremony/ribbon. Award a memento to commemorate achievement. Ask experienced members to share success stories about reaching milestones in their professional and Toastmasters goals. Make sure achievement and recognition are clearly explained and emphasized during orientation. The VPE should ensure members are delivering manual speeches. Clarify the mentor's responsibilities to mentors and protégés.

MEMBER RETENTION

Challenges	Possible Causes	Recommendations
Members are disengaged. Members are not returning. Members have a negative attitude about Toastmasters and their club.	There may not be a formal mentor program. Members may not be aware of the mentor program or the benefits of participating. Protégés may feel their mentors are not a good fit.	Use the VPE and a formal mentor program to make sure members are actively participating. The VPM should contact members who have been absent or ill with a phone call or greeting card to let them know they were missed. Begin and end meetings on time to show respect for all attendees. Use the Member Interest Survey so members can share their goals and needs with the club. Recognize achievement in all roles, both large and small.

MENTORING

Challenges	Possible Causes	Recommendations
Members are not satisfied with the mentor program. Members are not taking advantage of the mentor program. Members are not interested in being a mentor.	Members may not feel that they are accomplishing their goals. Members may not feel supported. Meetings may be starting or ending late.	Emphasize the importance of the mentor program to new members. Follow up with mentors and protégés regularly to gauge effectiveness. Encourage mentoring at all education levels, not just new members. Let members know that changing mentors is normal and no one should feel attached to a single mentor. Devise a formal feedback program between mentor and protégé to foster accountability.
