WHEN IS IT TIME TO SAY GOODBYE TO YOUR CLUB?

When your club members are feeling burnt out and running your club is becoming a chore. It might be time to make the decision to close your club. Use this guide to help you and your members decide if the time has come to say goodbye to your club.

Managing club meetings

- ☐ Members are not presenting Pathways Projects
- ☐ Less than half of your club members attend the majority of the time (6/8 meetings)
- ☐ Members are filling multiple meeting roles
- ☐ There are not enough members to hold meetings
- ☐ The same people are filling the same roles each week (same people doing speeches, or any other club meeting role).
- ☐ The club is not holding educationals
- ☐ Table topic sessions are not varied or challenging for members

Managing Executive roles

- ☐ There are not enough volunteers for club officer roles
- ☐ Club officers have not attended training
- ☐ Club officers are not following Pathways
- ☐ Committee meetings are not being held
- ☐ The same people are filling officer roles year after year
- ☐ The club is relying on 1-2 people to do all the work of running the club
- ☐ The club has worked with a club coach in the past and it hasn't helped, or it only helped while the coach was working with the club

Attracting new members

- ☐ New members are not being supported with the Pathways Education program
- ☐ New members are not assigned a mentor
- ☐ There have been no guests in the last 6 months
- ☐ There have been no new members in the last 6 months

Retaining members

- ☐ Current members are not experiencing continued growth in skills
- ☐ Multiple long-standing members have left
- ☐ Club members are not engaged with members beyond their own club. (For example, with interclub events, or Area, Division or District events).
- ☐ Personal/professional or educational goals are not being met
